

Healthy Old Age Brings Happiness

Simple Remedy Promotes Health
By Overcoming Tendency to Constipation

Advancing years impair the action of the vital organs. Old age should be the period of greatest happiness, but good health is necessary. Constipation should not be tolerated—it is often the direct cause of ill health.

Headache, belching, biliousness, bloatedness after eating, and other symptoms of constipation can be readily relieved by the use of a simple laxative compound sold in drug stores under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. Mr. J. H. Bristol, 1312 Cedar Ave., Ann Arbor, Mich., who is 83 years old says, "Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the best remedy I ever used for constipation and I always have a bottle of it in the house to use when I feel the need of it; it never disappoints."

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a mild laxative preparation, positive in its effects, acting easily and naturally without griping or other pain or discomfort.

With universal military training this country will not have to depend upon the vagaries of a lot of pettifolled congressmen.—Chicago News.

MR. J. H. BRISTOL

For over a quarter of a century it has been the standard household remedy in thousands of homes. Druggists everywhere sell it for fifty cents a bottle. A trial bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin can be obtained, free of charge, by writing to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 464 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

Side Dressing

We have an ideal Fertilizer for Side Dressing Cotton and Corn. It is heavily charged with soda for quick action and then the other ingredients in this Side Dressing will continue the growth started up by the soda. These goods are made especially for Side Dressing and is just what the crop needs. A great many people think Cotton will bring a good price next fall. If it does, you will want all you can make. If it should be low you will need all you can make. Side Dressing applied early makes more Cotton, and there is no earthly question about that. It brings you about $3.00 for every dollar you pay out.

It should be applied just as fast as you get your Cotton thinned to a stand and plowed out.

We are ready with the goods.

The cotton crop is about 15 days late at this time. Side Dressing may prove unusually profitable this year if we have an early frost.

Plans for a Bazaar.

Mrs. J. B. Townsend entertained at a delightful little affair yesterday afternoon at her home on North McDuffie street.

Her guest were the members of her committee of the ladies Aid Society of the First Presbyterian church appointed by the president for the bazaar to be given by this society this fall. The whole society has been divided into five committees, with a chairman of each, and these ladies are already making elaborate plans for the largest bazaar ever given in Anderson.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Townsend had her committee just for an afternoon of planning and discussing different means and ways, and not only a lot of work was accomplished, but a very pleasant afternoon was spent by the ladies.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Sanders have moved to the new residence on North Fant street, next to the Christian church.

Mrs. Eva Murray, of Atlanta, Ga., is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. O. Wilhite.

Mrs. Reed Eberhart.

One of the largest and prettiest parties of the week was given by Mrs. Frank Reed yesterday afternoon at her home on Greenville st. Tables were arranged for auction bridge in the parlors and hall where many beautiful sweet peas were used in profusion. The afternoon was an especially pleasant one, and was fully enjoyed by those present. Mrs. Reed was assisted in her duties as hostess by Mrs. Lewis Sanders, Mrs. Manly Watson, Misses Amelia and Helen Reed.

After an interesting series of games Mrs. J. J. Baldwin was presented with a lovely basket of sweet peas, as first prize. The cards being laid aside a dainty sweet course was served.

The guest for the afternoon were: Mesdames L. S. Horton, Harleston Barton, C. F. Green, L. Cely, Keith Prevost, A. G. Fretwell, Raymond Besty, M. L. Bonham, S. N. Glimmer, Carrie McCully, S. R. METHODISTS MAY UNITE CHURCHES

Union of Branches Would Give Nearly 6,000,000 Members.

SLAVERY CAUSED THE SPLIT

Methodist Episcopal Church, Methodist Episcopal Church South and Methodist Protestant Church Now Have Total of 27,426 Ministers and 47,615 Churches.

The prospect of Methodist union, possibly as early as 1918 and in any case not later than 1920, has aroused widespread interest among the members of Protestant churches as to the size and rank of the Methodist church when reunited.

The Methodist general conference, which just concluded its session in Saratoga Springs, N. Y., unanimously endorsed the proposed union of American Methodism. If the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South in 1918 also endorses the plan the union can probably be put into effect to some extent at once.

The union proposed is of these two denominations and one other, the Methodist Protestant church. The numerical results will be imposing. The new Methodist church, for that will probably be the name, will have almost exactly one-third of the 17,742,500 communicants of the thirty church bodies which are now members of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America. It will have more than a third of their 130,001 churches and more than one-fourth of their 103,113 ministers. The next largest body will be the southern Baptist convention, and after that will come the new Baptist, with the Presbyterians following.

Some Statistics.

Here are the figures for 1915, the most recent obtainable, as given in the Churches of the Federal Council, edited by Charles S. MacFarland and issued only a few weeks ago by the Fleming H. Revell company:

	Ministers
Methodist Episcopal church.....	13,813
Methodist Episcopal Church South.....	7,003
Methodist Protestant church.....	1,410
Total.....	27,426
	Churches
Methodist Episcopal church.....	23,428
Methodist Episcopal Church South.....	15,781
Methodist Protestant church.....	2,400
Total.....	47,615
	Communicants
Methodist Episcopal church.....	3,957,541
Methodist Episcopal Church South.....	2,672,003
Methodist Protestant church.....	201,110
Total.....	5,830,739

When it is added that neither the southern Baptist convention, with 2,602,217 communicants, nor the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, with 1,408,157 communicants, approaches in size the Methodist Episcopal church the numerical greatness of the united Methodist church will be readily appreciated.

Caused by Slavery Issue.

Slavery, which also divided the Baptist and Presbyterian churches, was the cause of the division of the Methodist Episcopal church. Among Methodists the schism took place in 1844, arising from the case of Bishop James Osgood Andrew of Georgia, whose wife was a slaveholder. The Methodist Protestant church was the outgrowth of a still earlier dispute over the moral rights of the ministry and laity. It was formed about 1830 and was itself split in 1853 by the slavery question. In 1890 the northern half of the Methodist Protestant church fused with the Wesleyan Methodist church, and in 1897 both parts of the Methodist Protestant church were again brought together.

The coming union of Methodists will create a denomination as pre-eminent in missionary work as in membership. The three churches when fused will have about 1,700 foreign missionaries and 1,300 missionaries of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America and 325 foreign missionaries of the Presbyterian Church in the United States South. The reunited Methodists will have about 9,200 home missionaries. Northern and southern Presbyterians together have not many more than 4,000.

T. R. CALLS IT RO-ZE-VELDT.

Proper Pronunciation of Name That Is Frequently Mispronounced.

Chauncey M. Depew, who had known T. R. from boyhood, says "Roze-veldt" with the accent on the first half of the word.

The dictionary says "Roze-velt" with the accent on "Ro." It is a question why any person out of ten years old in pronouncing the last half of the word's name as if it were spelled "Rozevelt."

That fact is absolutely wrong. The ex-president himself says Roze-velt, all spread out like and not like with a nose or your Rozevelt or Rozevelt.

There are three distinct syllables in his name instead of two.
